

K-Love has been providing a much needed service to this community. The type of family programming produced is a welcome change to most other stations. An LPFM broadcaster providing other programming is not needed. We support the positive and encouraging messages on K-Love.